Smt. SANDHYA MURTHY

Smt. Sandhya Murthy, wife of well known Cinematographer Sri V.K. Murthy and daughter of Late Dr. Y. Parthanarayana Pandit, was an ardent lover of classical music - both Karnatic and Hindustani. She used to sing light music. In addition to her love for music, Smt. Sandhya Murthy was a very active stage artiste during her stay in Bombay for over 30 years. Sri V.K. Murthy was a violinist during his younger days.

Smt. Sandhya Murthy passed away on July 6, 2006. To commemorate her memory, Sri. Ashvini Pandit, her brother who lives in the U.S.A. has created an endowment in her name for a concert in Gayana Samaja every year as "Sandhya Murthy Memorial Concert". The Managing Committee thankfully acknowledges the donation.

Kovai R. Sama Rao Memorial Endowment

Sri Kovai R. Sama Rao was born on 25.07.1931 and was a leading advocate in Coimbatore. He was an ardent lover of Carnatic Music and has organised Sri Thyagaraja and Sri Purandaradasa aradhana for many years in Coimbatore. He was also involved in many social service activities till his end came on 13.07.2008. Sri C.S. Murali and Smt. M. Jayalaxmi have created an endowment in his name.

Sri A. ANANTHAKRISHNAN MEMORIAL ENDOWMENT

Sri. A. Ananthakrishnan is one of the very few members who have had the privilege of membership of Gayana Samaja for over sixty years continuously. He has perhaps the record of serving Gayana Samaja for about three decades in various capacities - as Managing Committee Member, Treasurer, Internal Auditor, Joint Secretary, Hon. Secretary and Vice President.

An ardent lover of classical Karnatic music attending concerts regularly, even in his old age and fragile health, Sri. Ananthakrishnan was an admirer of many great musicians of day. His friendship with the doyen of Karnatic music, Semmangudi R. Srinivasa lyer, was so great that the maestro would always make it a point to stay with him or atleast visit him when in Bangalore. It was a precious occasion for Ananthakrishnan on his 80th birthday when Semmangudi, who agreed to sing for half an hour, gave a full fledged memorable concert.

Born on 15th July 1912, Sri Ananthakrishnan had his education in Kerala and later took his law degree in Madras. He settled down in Bangalore in 1940 and retired as Office S u p e r i n t e n d e n t from Indian Institute of Science. A keen sports enthusiast, he zealously served Karnataka Football Association, Karantaka Hockey Association, Karnataka State Cricket Association and Indian Institute of World Culture in various capacities.

Sri Ananthakrishnan is survived by his loving wife Smt. Saraswathi and four sons, two of them in USA, who are all well settled in life. This loving family has created an endowment for a concert during July every year in the name of Sri A. Ananthakrishnan - a name which Gayana Samaja will cherish for devotion, dedication and exemplary service.

Sri. A. RATNAMMA NARASIMIYENGAR & Sri. M.N. KESARI ENDOWMENT

Smt. Ratnamma Narasimiyengar, wife of Sri. M.L. Narasimiyengar, well known engineer of erstwhile State of Mysore, was a lover of Indian classical music and was a member of Gayana Samaja for fifty years. She passed away on 7th July 1990 at the age of 88 years.

Sri. M.N. Kesari, only son of Sri. M.L. Narasimiyengar, was a Mechanical Engineer. He joined Bharat Electronics in 1954. By his efficiency and dedication, he rose in the organisation to high positions and retired as its Executive Director in 1994. An ardent lover of classical music, Karnatic as well as Hindustani, he was a member of the Gayana Samaja for over forty years and regularly attended the concerts. Eventhough in poor health, he insisted on attending all the evening concerts of 28th Music Conference, a tribute to his love of music ! Within forty eight hours of attending the concluding concert, he passed away to his heavenly abode on 28th October 1997 at the age of 71 years.

The family members together have created an endowment for a monthly concert in Gayana Samaja to perpetuate the memory of the mother and the son in whose lives listening to classical music was so endearing.
