Smt. SARASWATHAMMA & SRI S. KRISHNA RAO ENDOWMENT

Smt. Saraswathamma (1901 -1966) was an ardent student of Carnatic Classical Music, both Vocal and Veena. Sri S.Krishna Rao (1893 -1944) was an ardent lover of English literature. He had the vision to recognize the importance of formal and informal education. The Endowment instituted by their children is a token of their affection to their parents and music.

Smt. JAYAMMA RAYAN AND S.N. CHENNAKESHA RAYAN
& Smt. PRABHA RANGANNA ENDOWMENT

Smt. Jayamma Rayan was an ardent student of Carnatic Classical Music. She was a violinist and harmonium player. She was a social worker. Sri S.N. Chennakeshava Rayan was an Executive Engineer of State Electricity Board. Their children Dr. Indira Prabhakar and Smt. Shanthi S. Rao both residing in USA are social workers and music lovers.

Smt. Prabha Ranganna was a music lover and a member of Gayana Samaja for a long time.

Smt. GEETHA KOWDLEY AND SRI KOWDLEY VISWANATHAN ENDOWMENT

Smt. Geetha Kowdley and Sri Kowdley Viswanathan are connoisseurs of Carnatic music, settled in USA. Mr. Kowdley is a Civil Engineer and has been a Trustee of the Music Academy of New York.

Sri R. Krishna Swamylyengar, and Smt. V. Janaki Memorial Endowment

Sri R.KrishnaSwmaylyengar (1900-1976) from Huliur Village, in Karur District of Tamil Nadu living in Mumbai, was a highly ethical, disciplinarian and religious person. His wife Smt. V.Janaki (1914-2015) was an ardent lover of Karnatic Classical Music. Both of them have struggled to bring up their 8 children five daughters and three sons. In memory of their parents the third son Sri K.Gopal, who was an Assistant Commissioner of Income Tax created an endowment for a concert during January every year. Mr. K.Gopalafter voluntary retirement in 1988 is practicing as an Income Tax Consultant with his office in Gandhi Bazaar, Basavanagudi, Bangalore
